Answer 1 (one) question.
Question 1 "Education law is perhaps the most important cornerstone of our society. It deals with the most valuable national asset - our children our future. It is not a self-contained are of law. It reaches over into family, housing, community care and also criminal law." [Lord Justice P. Otton] Discuss. Question 2 On a daily basis, educators must make legally sound decisions concerning the instruction, supervision and safety of students while operating within the boundaries of the laws and school policies. Discuss. Question 3 Attacks on higher education occur around the world, in stable and unstable countries, democracies and dictatorships alike. While these attacks differ in form and severity, they share a common motive: to silence the voices of scholars, students, and other higher education personnel. How is Academic Freedom protected by Maltese Law?
