Notes:	For Question 1, explain clearly what your presentation is about and what message or key idea you want the audience to take away. Focus on your main aim. For Question 2, describe how you prepared for the presentation—such as researching, organising your content, or rehearsing—and explain why you think this method will help you succeed. In Question 3, reflect on what you feel confident about and what you're a bit unsure of. Mention any challenges you expect and how you plan to deal with them. For Question 4, talk about why you chose the topic, what you find interesting or important about it, and what you hope your audience will learn or understand from it.
